PURCHASING TICKETS

Tickets are available online at www.GatorZone.com, by calling the Gator Ticket Office at 800-34-GATOR (42867), ext 6800, or by visiting the main ticket office inside Ben Hill Griffin Football Stadium.

On game day, the O'Connell Center Ticket Office Window (located at Gate 1) opens for sales 60 minutes prior to tip-off, with doors open for fan entrance also one hour prior to the start of each game.

SEASON PASS SPECIALS

In an effort to remain fan-friendly and affordable, Florida has renewed the popular low-priced ticket bundles.

Fans can purchase season passes to sit in a designated reserved section on the lower level. All Season Passes holders are permitted to sit anywhere in the arena, including the area directly behind the Florida bench. In addition, a Season Pass also includes a general admission ticket to a men's basketball game in the event of a doubleheader.

Another option fans can purchase is the Family Pass. For only $40, a family of four can attend every Gator women's basketball game during the 2012-13 season.

With the purchase of a Gator Gold Card, Gator fans can get into every regular-season women's basketball, volleyball and gymnastics event. It also is valid for the women's portion of the two doubleheader games scheduled with the men's basketball team, Nov. 11. Gator Gold Card holders can sit in the reserved section for all other Women's Basketball games.

THE GATOR GOLD CARD & DOUBLEHEADERS

Gator Gold Card holders will NOT need to purchase a ticket to get into the women's game for the doubleheader schedule for 2012-13.

Single-game tickets for women's basketball on doubleheader days will be available to purchase until halftime. Fans will have the option to purchase either a men's ticket that will get them into both games or only a women's ticket valid through the conclusion of the women's game. A men's basketball ticket must be purchased to stay for the men's basketball game.

AMANDA BUTLER
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA HEAD COACH

2012-13 IS SIXTH YEAR AS UF HEAD COACH & EIGHTH YEAR OVERALL AS A HEAD COACH

Combine passion, pride, toughness, intensity, humor, wittiness, competitiveness, leadership and mix in a healthy dose of a swagger and you have Amanda Butler, who in 2012-13 enters her sixth year as head coach of the University of Florida women's basketball team.

The 2011-12 squad was her fifth of five Gator teams to earn a postseason berth – the first time any of the previous eight coaches in program history has been able to do so. Butler also was the first-ever coach to guide Florida to a postseason berth in her inaugural season on the sideline.

Butler has already amassed 98 victories with the Orange & Blue, the most of any coach in program history through their respective first five seasons. Carol Ross (1990-2002) also tallied 97 wins through her first five years en route to becoming the winningest coach in Gator history with 247 victories in 12 seasons.

Butler also has made the O'Connell Center a tough venue for opponents, as her Gators have won 89.0 percent of their games against non-conference foes, posting a 40-5 home record during her five-year tenure.

Aside from the victories during her five years at Florida, Butler has guided 10 different Gators to 16 spots on the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll, six Gators to the Freshman Academic Honor Roll and one to the Capital One Academic All-District 4 Team. Additionally, three different Gators have been voted First Team All-SEC, with three on the SEC All-Freshman Team and one named the SEC 6th Woman of the Year.

Butler, who was the youngest of the SEC's 12 head coaches during her first four seasons (she was the second-youngest in 2011-12), turned 40 during the 2012 SEC Tournament and possesses 17 years of college coaching experience, including two as the head coach of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte and now five completed with the Gators. Her teams have competed in the postseason every year.

In the 38-year history of the Florida women's basketball program, the team has posted 20 wins 11 times, with Butler accounting for three of those, including the 20-victory campaign in 2011-12, as the squad reached the NCAA Tournament for the 13th time in school history and reached the second round where the Gators fell to the eventual national champion.

Significant individual award-winners during the 2011-12 season included Jennifer George, who was named a First Team All-Southeastern Conference performer, Deana Allen, who was voted by the league's coaches as the Co-6th Woman of the Year, and Jordan Jones, who was named to the Capital One Academic All-District 4 Team. George also earned a spot on the 2012 WBCA Division I Coaches' All-America Honorable Mention Team.

Amanda Butler was in her second season as a Gator assistant coach when DeLisha Milton was named the program's first First-Team WBCA All-American.

Her second 20-win season was compiled by an extremely young and inexperienced 2010-11 team that returned only two starters and listed one scarcely-used senior on its roster.

Every step along her career path to date has seemingly resulted in another record, milestone or accomplishment.

Take the 2008-09 season for example. The mere fact that Florida was even mentioned as a possible NCAA Tournament team by season's end was remarkable when such an accomplishment seemed nearly impossible just two years prior to her arrival in Gainesville.

In fact, the 2008-09 season will go down as one of the most successful campaigns in program history.

In addition to tying the school record with 24 victories during the year, Florida marched into the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the seventh time in history. In the team's first trip to the round of 32 since 2004, the 2008-09 squad had its season close on the road at top-ranked and eventual NCAA champion Connecticut. Florida ended the year rated among the top-25 in both national polls for the first time since 2002.

"She's a competitor. She is fierce on the court, but a fun person to be around off it. She played at Florida, so I think she truly bleeds orange and blue. She won't settle for anything less than number one."

Amanda Butler hosted the 2009 and 2011 Ronald McDonald House of Gainesville's Pro-Am Golf Tournament and Auction.

Also during the 2008-09 season, the Gators compiled a program-record 15-game winning streak, as well as a record seven-game run against Southeastern Conference foes that helped UF finish tied for fourth in the 12-team league and earn a first-round bye in the SEC Tournament for the seventh time in the 30-year history of the event. The 2008-09 Gators found themselves in the top-10 of the Associated Press national poll, when the media tabbed UF No. 9 on Feb. 9, 2009, the team's first top-10 showing since Feb. 12, 2001.

When Florida earned the No. 23 spot in the Dec. 8, 2008 Associated Press national poll, Butler joined an elite list of women. She became one of only 24 women in the history of NCAA Division I women's basketball who had played for a team that was ranked in the AP Top-25 and later coached a team that earned a top-25 ranking. Even more rare was the fact the Butler played for and coached the SAME team that earned a top-25 ranking, becoming only the sixth woman ever to accomplish that feat.

Statistically, the 2008-09 Gators shattered the program record by hitting 221 three-pointers, breaking the old mark of 179 set the previous season.

The list of team records set or tied, as well as individual accomplishments is long, but in the end came as little surprise to a team that adopted the mantra of being "Bigger & Better" at the beginning of the 2008-09 year and then backed it up with unselfish play, inspiring coaching leadership and a belief that it could achieve.

In spite of losing to graduation two of the most statistically impressive players in program history, the 2009-10 Gators marched along and found a way to earn an appearance in their third consecutive postseason tournament.

The 2009-10 season marked the 11th time in Butler's 15 years on the sidelines her team has competed in the postseason, including five NCAA Tournament appearances.

Florida has had eight different full-time women's basketball head coaches and Butler is the first to lead the Gators to a postseason berth in each of her first three years with the program.

Amanda Butler became the first Gator head coach to guide the team to a postseason berth in their first year. UF has competed in the postseason every year under Butler.

"Coach Butler's a great coach. She's teaches you to work hard in practice. When you don't feel like practicing or going to conditioning workouts, she helps you understand the importance of it late in the season and you're more motivated to work hard.

"She taught me everything to this stage of my career. She taught me how to take care of the ball and about making good decisions on and off the court."

-- 2009 First-Team All-SEC Performer Sha Brooks (2005-09) on Amanda Butler

During her initial three years at Florida, Butler compiled 58 wins, seven more than her college coach Carol Ross, whose 247 victories in 12 years are the most in UF program history.

Ross has called Butler the "toughest Gator ever to wear the Florida uniform." That grittiness and feistiness held true on the sideline in 2009-10, when she ruptured her left Achilles tendon on Oct. 24, 2009, as she was quarterbacking her then-undefeated flag football team in The Swamp Bowl, the name given to the playoff round of the on-campus league event.

In spite of the injury, Butler never missed a beat, attending the he Backcourt Club's annual membership drive event and the team's practice the next day. She underwent successful surgery on Oct. 26 and was back on the sideline Oct. 28. The next day, she volunteered her time at the Children's Miracle Network Art Auction that featured all art created by the pediatric patients at Shands Hospital in Gainesville.

A total of six Gators earned a place on the 2009-10 SEC Academic Honor Roll, tying for the most of any other league team.

In four of the five years under Butler the Gators have finished higher in the final SEC regular-season standings than predicted during the preseason by both the coaches and media. Florida was tabbed to finish sixth in 2008-09. The Gators' 9-5 league record tied with Tennessee for fourth place, the team's highest finish since the 2003-04 squad also tied for fourth in the SEC race. The 2008-09 Gators earned a first-round bye in the SEC Tournament after holding the tiebreaker against the

After inheriting virtually the same squad that won just nine games the previous year (2006-07), Butler and her staff produced the greatest one-year turnaround by a coach in their first year in program history, winning 19 games while facing 17 different teams that earned a postseason bid. Butler also became the program's first head coach to guide Florida to a postseason berth in their debut year, as the squad competed in the WNIT, reaching the third round.

Florida shattered the 2007-08 preseason expectations of the SEC head coaches, who picked the Gators to finish 11th in the final standings. The Gators finished four places ahead of those predictions, posting a 6-8 record and tying for seventh in the mighty SEC that once again produced two of the Final Four teams, including the national champion.

After seeing first-hand Butler's version of the Gators, Hall of Fame and SEC-veteran coach Van Chancellor praised, "I can remember when she (Coach Butler) played here (at UF) and she was gritty and tough and this team has exactly her personality. I think she's done a great job."

The transformation in the Gators' attitude began on April 13, 2007, when UF Athletics Director Jeremy Foley identified Butler, one of the nation's top young coaching talents as well as a former four-year starter and two-year assistant coach for Florida, as the ninth head coach in Gator women's basketball history.

"Coach Butler is very energetic and motivating. She really cares about people on and off the court. She's easy to talk to and very playful and funny."

Florida experienced immediate success on the court in 2007-08, as mentioned earlier, as well as off the court, as Butler promised it would. The Gators claimed the coveted UAA Life Skills Cup at the end of the academic year – and again in 2010-11 - after becoming the Florida athletic team that excelled most in the five areas of the CHAMPS Life Skills program. Teams earned points for participating in any Life Skills programming, including but not limited to: SAAC, Goodwill Gators (community outreach), workshops and presentations. The 2008-09 squad placed second in the final tally and third in 2009-10.

She returned to her alma mater, where she played for the Gators from 1990-94. Butler earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise and Sport Sciences with honors on May 6, 1995, and was awarded a Master of Exercise and Sport Sciences on Aug. 9, 1997.

During her two years as head coach at Charlotte, Butler compiled a 40-22 record that included two WNIT berths and a share of the 49ers first-ever Atlantic 10 Conference regular-season championship. Her debut season resulted in an overall record of 21-9, the most wins ever by a Charlotte coach in their first year, as Butler was recognized as the league's Coach of the Year.

The 2006-07 49ers posted a 19-13 overall mark, advancing to the WNIT second round before losing to Virginia, 74-72.

Butler joined the Charlotte staff on May 4, 2001, as an assistant under first-year head coach Katie Meier and helped the 49ers to a 16-13 record, the program's first winning season in eight years. In her second year as an assistant coach at Charlotte, the 49ers captured the 2003 Conference USA Regular-Season title and earned the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

She was promoted to Associate Head Coach the following season. When Meier departed one year later to take the head job at the University of Miami (Fla.), Butler became the logical choice to assume the 49ers head position.

Butler emerged as a proven recruiter, bringing to Charlotte four All-Atlantic 10 selections, four Conference USA All-Freshman team members and one All-Conference USA honoree.

She also embraced the local community, as 23 of the top 24 attendances for women's basketball at Charlotte came during Butler's five seasons with the 49ers.

Prior to her arrival in Charlotte, Butler spent four seasons (1997-2001) as an assistant coach at Austin Peay State University in Tennessee, where then-head coach Susie Gardner hired her to take over the team's recruiting efforts. It didn't take long for Butler to make an impact.

Jaterra Bonds became the second Gator to earn a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team under Coach Amanda Butler, doing so in 2011.

Under the development of Amanda Butler, Jennifer George earned a spot on the 2010 SEC All-Freshman Team and then became a 2012 First Team All-SEC selection.

One of Butler's recruits, Brooke Armistead, became the OVC Freshman of the Year in 2000 and closed her career as the 2003 OVC Player of the Year, as well as a Second-Team Verizon Academic All-American. Also under Butler's keen eye for talent, Austin Peay became the first OVC school to land back-to-back league Freshmen of the Year recipients, with Armistead in 2000 followed the next season by Gerlonda Hardin, who emerged as the league's 2004 Player of the Year and collected Third-Team Academic All-America honors. Armistead became the school's all-time leading scorer and the first player in APSU history to be drafted by the WNBA.

Her final season working under Gardner resulted in the Lady Govs' winning the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament for just the second time in program history and making their second-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament, joining the 1996 APSU team in the "Big Dance" and sparking a run of four consecutive NCAA appearances for the program.

"Even though we are from the same hometown, I never really met Amanda until she became my assistant coach at Austin Peay," shared Gardner, who Butler hired as an assistant coach at Florida during her first three years in Gainesville. "Before Amanda joined the staff, we weren't really winning. Amanda brought in the great players who helped us turn the corner and become a consistent NCAA Tournament team. Even though she was a young assistant, watching the way she managed the game and the way she interacted with

Bonus Butler Bites

- Florida has had eight different full-time women's basketball head coaches and Amanda Butler became one of only two Gator coaches who have won at least 20 games in their second season. In 2008-09, Butler joined Debbie Yow, whose second Gator team went 22-9 in 1984-85; Carol Ross (the winningest Gator coach with 247 victories) posted seven 20-win seasons, but didn't net her first until her fourth year, when Butler was the Gators' senior captain.
- When Florida earned the No. 23 spot in the Dec. 8, 2008 Associated Press ranking, Amanda Butler became only the sixth woman in the history of NCAA Division I Basketball to play for and coach the SAME team that earned a top-25 ranking.
- Amanda Butler became the eighth different full-time head coach in the 36-year history of the Florida women's basketball program ... and the FIRST to guide the Gators to a postseason berth in each of her first four years. In 2007-08, Butler became the FIRST to lead the Gators to a postseason bid in their first year at UF.
- Amanda Butler's 43 wins are the most by a Gator coach through their first two years in program history ... while her 58 are the most through three years at UF and her 78 are the most through four seasons and the 98 wins are the most through five years.
- Amanda Butler was the Gator's starting point guard when UF earned its first-ever NCAA Tournament bid. She started 99 of the 114 games she played during her four-year career.

people, I knew that Amanda was special and that one day soon she would be a head coach."

Given her talents as a collegiate coach, it comes as no surprise that Butler has played a role in some of the most successful seasons in Florida history. Upon graduation, then-Florida coach Ross hired Butler as the Gators' assistant coach. That 1995-96 squad compiled a 21-9 record and earned a berth into the NCAAs. The following season, the Gators won a program-record 24 games and advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, falling to Old Dominion, 53-51.

Florida enjoyed two of its best finishes in the SEC Tournament during Butler's time as an assistant, with the Gators advancing to the semifinals for the first time in program history during the 1996 campaign and followed it with the team's first – and still only – appearance in the championship game.

On the court, the 5-foot-8 guard immediately took charge of the team from her first day at Florida, also the rookie season for Ross as head coach, as Butler started 99 of the 114 games she played during her career. During her junior and senior seasons, she led the Gators to the first two NCAA Tournament appearances in program history that began a run of seven consecutive trips to the "Big Dance."

Butler, who was a three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll and was voted a finalist on the CoSIDA Academic All-America District Team, completed her Gator career ranked second on the program's all-time assists list with 401, while ranking among top-three for career three-pointers made (77) and attempted (278). The team captain during her senior season, Butler helped the Gators compile 73 victories during her tenure, the best four-year total in school history at that time, and to 21 SEC wins, also the most during a four-year span.

A native of Mt. Juliet, Tenn., Butler enjoyed a stellar prep career at Mt. Juliet High School, where she tallied over 1,400 points and received All-Mid-State honors and All-District honors for three straight years, including first-team recognition in 1989 and 1990. Butler, who graduated in the top 10 percent of her senior class, is the daughter of Stephen and Barbara Butler.

COACHING STAFF

ANGELA CROSBY
ASSISTANT COACH

2012-13 IS HER FIRST YEAR AT UF

The 2012-13 season will be Angela Crosby's first at the University of Florida, however, she brings 14 years of collegiate experience to Gainesville, having served as an assistant coach at Appalachian State, UT-Chattanooga, Memphis, Virginia Tech and Charlotte.

Most recently, Crosby spent the 2011-12 campaign as an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at UNC-Charlotte, where she was involved with coordinating the recruiting efforts, scouting opponents and assisting with the development of post players. Prior to her time at Charlotte, Crosby spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech, where here duties were similar with the addition of coordinating on-campus visits for recruits beginning in 2008.

Crosby, like the other Gator assistant coaches, will head an academic team which is comprised of current squad members who report directly to her with progress of their classroom endeavors, supplementing the attention each player receives from Judy Traveis, the Gators' academic advisor.

Additionally, Cosby will work closely with fellow assistant coach Murriel Page on the development of the post players. She will help in all aspects of the Gator's recruiting efforts.

During the 2007-08 academic year, Crosby served as the Assistant Dean of Students, Registrar and Girls' basketball coach at Whitefield Academy in Mableton, Ga. Before her time at Whitefield Academy, she served as the recruiting coordinator at the University of Memphis from 2004 through 2007, when she also was responsible for the development of post players.

Before taking the position at Memphis, she spent four years as an assistant coach on the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga coaching staff. While at UT-Chattanooga, the Lady Mocs captured four Southern Conference regular-season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Championships all four years, reaching the second round in 2004.

Crosby began her collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at her alma mater, Appalachian State, where she worked from 1996-2000. She also served as the director of the Appalachian State Basketball Camp for Girls during those four years. The Anderson, S.C. native received her first taste of coaching at T.L. Hanna High School during the 1995-96 year, when she served as the junior varsity and varsity basketball coach, as well as the junior varsity volleyball coach.

During her days competing on the basketball court, Crosby scored 1,023 points and averaged 21.9 points per game in her time at Appalachian State, both of which set school records for a two-year player. She also concluded her career with 510 rebounds, averaging 9.3 boards per game, and was selected as the 1994 SoCon Player of the Year.

Prior to transferring to ASU, Crosby was a NJCAA All-American in 1992 at Anderson (S.C.) Junior College, where she averaged 18 points and 12.3 rebounds in two seasons.

In 1994, she played one season of professional basketball in Barcelona, Spain, before returning to the U.S. and graduating from Appalachian State with a Bachelor's Degree in Habilitive Science.

In 2011, Crosby was inducted into the T.L. Hanna High School Athletic Hall of Fame.

COACHING STAFF

DAVID LOWERY
ASSISTANT COACH

2012-13 IS HIS SIXTH YEAR AT UF

The 2012-13 season marks the sixth year for David Lowery (pronounced: LOW - rhymes with NOW -ree) as an assistant coach at the University of Florida.

Lowery, like the other Gator assistant coaches, will head an academic team which is comprised of current squad members who report directly to him with progress of their classroom endeavors, supplementing the attention each player receives from Judy Traveis, the Gators' academic advisor.

Additionally, Lowery will work closely with his fellow assistant coaches coordinating different recruiting classes and will oversee the development of the guards.

An enthusiastic individual, Lowery continued to show dedication to his craft by accepting an invitation to participate during May of 2010 in VILLA 7, considered the "next generation of rising head coaches." Lowery was exposed to a "variety of topics designed to help ease their transition into the first chair," as outlined in the agenda.

During the 2008 summer, Lowery participated in a three-day seminar offered through the Black Coaches Administration entitled, "Achieving Coaching Excellence" or "ACE." At the invitation-only event, Lowery received intense training that exposed the participants to life as a head coach and prepared them for all aspects of being the leader of a program, while helping them become the best assistant they can be.

Lowery also has participated in the Nike Coaches Clinic the last three years in Tunica, Miss.

Lowery's path to Gainesville began at Mississippi State University, where he earned his undergraduate degree while spending four years as a student manager and later as a graduate assistant coach for the Lady Bulldogs (2000-01). He left Starkville to take a full-time assistant coaching position at Davidson College (2001-05), before Amanda Butler brought him to UNC Charlotte (2005-07) as part of her inaugural 49ers coaching staff and eventually to Florida when Butler was named the Gators' head coach on April 13, 2007.

During their two years together in Charlotte, Butler and Lowery helped the 49ers compile 40 wins, capture a share of the 2006 Atlantic 10 regular-season championship and earn a pair of postseason berths.

Under Lowery's guidance at Charlotte, senior forward Pam Brown was named First Team All-Atlantic 10 in 2006 and sophomore center Danielle Burgin became a Third-Team All-Atlantic 10 selection in 2007.

Prior to his stint at Charlotte, Lowery was an assistant coach at nearby Davidson College for four years, earning a position on Annette Watt's initial staff which inherited a team that won just nine games the year prior to their arrival. The Wildcats improved their win total each season, culminating in Davidson's 2005 runner-up spot in the Southern Conference - the best regular-season finish in program history.

Lowery earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education from Mississippi State in December of 2000. While completing his undergraduate work, Lowery served as a practice player for the Lady Bulldogs, working with some of the SEC's top players, including LaToya Thomas, who was a four-time first-team Kodak All-American and the No. 1 overall selection in the 2003 WNBA draft. He spent the second half of the 2000-01 season as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State, helping the Lady Bulldogs reach the WNIT in the midst of a six-year run of postseason appearances.

Lowery is a native of Kosciusko, Miss., which sports a population of less than 7,500 and has the distinction of being the birthplace of Oprah Winfrey. He graduated with honors from Kosciusko High School, where he was a four-year letterwinner on the basketball team and was captain of the "Big Red" marching band drumline. Lowery is the father of a 14-year old daughter, Kendall Arvryzena Hightower.

MURRIEL PAGE
ASSISTANT COACH

2012-13 IS HER THIRD YEAR AS A UF COACH

Murriel Page, one of the most decorated players in University of Florida women's basketball history, returned to her alma mater as an assistant coach in August of 2010 and in 2012-13 begins her third year on the Gator sideline.

Page, like the other Gator assistant coaches, will head an academic team which is comprised of current squad members who report directly to her with progress of their classroom endeavors, supplementing the attention each player receives from Judy Traveis, the Gators' academic advisor.

Additionally, Page will work closely with fellow assistant coach Angela Crosby on the development of the post players, as well as with the swing players. She will help in all aspects of the Gator's recruiting efforts.

A consensus first-team All-American at UF in 1998, Page has been playing professional basketball during the 12 years since graduating from the university, including a storied 11-year WNBA career.

In July of 2012, fans voted Page to the WNBA's Washington Mystics All-Time Team.

"Murriel's professional experience, her passion for the Gators and the quality of person that she is makes her the perfect fit for our program," said head coach Amanda Butler, who was a UF assistant coach during Page's sophomore and junior seasons with the Gators.

Page, who was inducted into UF's Athletic Hall of Fame on April 17, 2009, suited up for the Gators from 1994-98, when she earned first team All-Southeastern Conference in 1997 and 1998, and was one of three players who was a unanimous selection on the 1998 squad (with Tennessee's Chamique Holdsclaw & Alabama's Dominique Canty). She was a finalist for the 1998 Naismith Player of the Year, a finalist for the 1998 Wade Trophy, among the top vote getters for the 1998 AP National Player of the Year and was one of six finalists for the Honda Award for Basketball, the first-ever Gator to reach this stage of the award. Her 12.6 rebound average per game during her senior year ranked No. 2 nationally (behind Howard's Alicia Hill, 12.8 rpg).

"Not many players get the chance to return to their alma mater and give back to their program so I'm very excited and emotional about this opportunity," said Page, who turned down an offer to play professionally in Spain for the 2010 season to coach the Gators.

"I can bring a lot of excitement and enthusiasm to the sideline and the team," Page continued. "From playing in the WNBA and overseas, I bring another perspective of the game. I've walked the same path as the players are now and know the types of things they are experiencing. Hopefully, I can share my own experiences with them and staff and help bring a championship to the program that I tried so hard to do when I was here."

Shortly upon graduating, Page was the third overall pick in the 1998 WNBA draft, as she became the Washington Mystics' first-ever draft selection in franchise history and voted team captain from 2000-05. In March of 2006, "The Original Mystic" was traded prior to Los Angeles, where she was reunited with former Gator frontcourt mate DeLisha Milton-Jones. Page played with the Sparks for three years and had signed a contract to play with the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury for the 2009 season, but tore her Achilles tendon on the final day of training camp and was unable to play.

In 11 WNBA seasons, Page appeared in 354 games, earning 205 starts, while scoring 2,154 points and collecting 1,603 rebounds. She earned the 1999 and 2000 WNBA Bud Light Shooting Champions Award for leading the league in field goal percentage.

During the WNBA off-season, Page suited up for a number of different professional teams in Spain, including Soller from 2008-10, Baloncesto San Jose in 2007-08, with Hondarribia in 2003-04, 2005-07, Ros Casares in 2004-05 and 2001-02, Venezia in Italy in 2002-03 and Mangueira in Brazil in 2000.

A native of Louin, Miss., Page concluded her collegiate career with 1,915 points and 1,251 rebounds, both of which remain the top two numbers in those respective categories all-time in Gator history. She ranked No. 1 at UF for career double-doubles (65), No. 1 for games played (128), No. 2 all-time at UF for rebounding, No. 2 at UF for scoring and No. 2 at UF for career field goal percentage (55.0%). She was No. 6 all-time in SEC history for rebounding, just 21 behind the 1,272 by Vanderbilt's Wendy Scholtens. Page also totaled 103 double-figure scoring games & 67 double-figure rebounding games. UF was 92-36 during her four-year career, won at least 21 games each of those seasons, reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA twice, the NCAA Elite Eight once and earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament every year.

COACHING STAFF

JANNA MAGETTE
DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Chemistry and loyalty are two of the most important ingredients found among any successful coaching staff and no one exemplifies those characteristics on Head Coach Amanda Butler's staff stronger than Janna Magette (JAN-uh muh-JET), who in 2012-13 serves as the Gator's Director of Basketball Operations. This is her first year with the title after working at the team's Assistant to the Head Coach for her first five seasons in Gainesville.

When Butler was named the Gators' head coach on April 13, 2007, it was an easy decision for her to ask Magette to make the move to Gainesville with her. Magette and Butler worked for three years together at UNC Charlotte, including the last two when Butler assumed head coaching duties. The more difficult decision may have come on Magette's part, as she willingly chose to forgo her previous role as an assistant coach and welcome different challenges.

"I worked with Amanda for three years at Charlotte and every time she would talk about Florida, she would get so excited. She's so passionate about this place," Magette said. "When the opportunity came to remain part of her staff and work at a place like Florida, it was a very easy decision for me."

Magette wears several different hats for the Gators, performing duties ranging from staff academic liaison to camp and coaching clinic's coordinator to working with practice and class schedules. She also oversees the program's equipment contract and inventory with NIKE and coordinates the team's travel.

In 2009-10, Magette began a new task of assembling the team's annual schedule, as well as serving as the staff's liaison for the program's official website, www.CoachAmandaButler.com. She received her master's degree from UF in 2010 and during the 2011 fall semester began work toward a PhD in a Leadership Development program in the college of agricultural education and communication.

During the summer of 2009 when Coach Butler was traveling with the U.S. Under 19 World Championships Team, Magette was allowed to fill in as a recruiter, observing and evaluating prep talent at national tournaments. She again slipped on the recruiting hat during the 2010 summer, when assistant coach Susie Gardner left for a head coaching position and Butler took time interviewing to fill that vacancy.

Magette and Butler first began working together at UNC Charlotte, where she was hired by then-49ers head coach Katie Meier as an assistant coach at the start of the 2004-05 season. When Meier left at the end of the year to become the head coach at the University of Miami, Butler was named 49ers' head coach and asked Magette to remain with her in Charlotte. Butler later hired Brenda Mock Kirkpatrick and David Lowery to complete her coaching staff, all of whom made the move to Florida with Butler.

That quartet of Butler, Kirkpatrick, Lowery and Magette gelled during their two years together in Charlotte, as the 49ers compiled 40 wins, captured a share of the 2006 Atlantic 10 regular-season championship and earned a pair of postseason berths.

Magette began her coaching career as an assistant for NCAA Division II Francis Marion University, where she was hired by first-year head coach Valecia Tedder in April of 2004. Among Magette's duties with the Patriots were recruiting, academic support and individual player workouts.

A four-year letter winner from Davidson College, Magette was a standout for the Wildcats, finishing her career as the program's second all-time leading scorer with 1,392 points. A long-range shooting threat, Magette was deadly from behind the arc, holding career marks in three-point field goals (213) and attempts (597). She earned All-Southern Conference honors in her senior campaign, setting a conference record for three-pointers made in a career. She also ranked among the school's all-time leaders in assists (296), steals (239) and free throws made (195-246, 79.3 percent). Among her postseason accolades, Magette earned the 2001 and 2002 Wildcat Award, equivalent to a Most Outstanding Player honor. A two-time Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll member, Magette received her bachelor's degree in religion in 2002.

A native of Hoover, Ala., the daughter of Jimmy and Peggy Magette attended Hoover High School, where she was a two-sport sensation in both basketball and softball. Her prowess on the basketball court caught the eye of several collegiate coaches, including none other than Amanda Butler, who was the recruiting coordinator at Austin Peay State University at the time. Magette opted to attend Davidson, where one of the assistant coaches her senior year was David Lowery.

UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION ADMINISTRATION

DR. J. BERNARD MACHEN

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Bernie Machen was appointed UF's 11th president in January, 2004. During his tenure, he has expanded the university's research and scholarship endeavors, elevated its educational programs and increased access to students from a diversity of economic backgrounds – all while shepherding the university through an era of growing financial challenges.

Under President Machen's leadership, UF's annual research funding has soared to $619 million, including a $64 million grant for research on aging that is the largest in UF's history. He has presided over a major expansion of research facilities, including the 280,000-square-foot Cancer and Genetics Research Complex, the university's largest research building. Dr. Machen has also nurtured UF's technology commercialization enterprise, spearheading the development of a 40-acre innovation community within walking distance of UF's main campus.

Prior to his tenure at Utah, Dr. Machen was the provost and vice president for academic affairs and dean of the School of Dentistry at the University of Michigan. He served as an assistant and an associate dean in the School of Dentistry at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He held faculty appointments as associate professor and professor at UNC-Chapel Hill.

Machen attended Vanderbilt University and received his doctor of dental surgery degree from Saint Louis University. He also has a master's in pediatric dentistry and a doctorate in educational psychology, both from the University of Iowa. He is a diplomate of the American Board of Pediatric Dentistry and was president of the American Association of Dental Schools. He also served on the Board of Trustees of the 2002 Salt Lake Olympic Committee. He has academic interests in national health policy.

Dr. Machen and his wife, Chris - a former neonatal intensive care nurse, are the parents of three children.

JEREMY FOLEY

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Jeremy N. Foley, who has handled virtually every aspect of the University of Florida's $96 million athletic program during his athletic administrative career - which began with an internship in the Gator Ticket Office in 1976 - was named UF's Director of Athletics in March of 1992. He is the third longest tenured athletic director among Bowl Championship series Conference schools.

As chief financial officer for the University Athletic Association (UAA), Foley has spearheaded a number of capital improvement projects in the athletic department, also playing a role in the academic advising center on campus.

Foley's commitment to the overall athletic program includes a plan of increased opportunities for women, as three women's sports have been added under his tenure – soccer, softball and lacrosse.

Also, in an era when the NCAA estimates 90 percent of Division I schools are losing money on intercollegiate athletics, the University of Florida Athletic Association has contributed more than $67 million in the last 22 years to help fund University of Florida academic endeavors.

Florida has been equally successful on the field of play and in the classroom during Foley's administrative tenure. The Florida athletic program has ranked among the nation's top 10 for 29-straight years (1983-84 – 2011-12) and among the top five for 15 times in the of the last 22 years, according to national all-sport rankings.

The 2011-12 athletics year was arguably one of the best in Gator history. A school-record three national titles were won - the men's indoor track and field team won it's third consecutive national championship, the women's tennis team captured the national title for the second consecutive year and the men's outdoor track and field program won the school's first outdoor title. Florida has won multiple national titles for the third consecutive year, a first in the history of the athletic program. Overall, 12 programs finished in the top 10 and Florida finished second in the national all-sports rankings, matching the best finish in school history (UF finished tied for second in 1997-98 and second in 2009-10). Florida has finished in the top three of those rankings in three of the past four years.

UF's commitment in the classroom is equally impressive. Under Foley, UF student-athletes have been honored 92 times as Academic All-Americans.

Foley, 59, was named the Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal National Athletic Director of the Year in June of 2006.

Born in Washington, D.C., but calling New London, N.H., home, Foley received his undergraduate degree in 1974 from Hobart College in Geneva, N.Y., where he also coached and scouted for the tradition-rich lacrosse program following graduation. He went on to earn his Master's Degree in Sports Administration from Ohio University in 1976 and then joined the Gator athletic program as an intern in the ticket office.

An avid sports and Boston Red Sox fan, Foley ran the Boston Marathon in a 3:39.51 clip in April of 1995 and completed the course in 3:28.10 in 1998. A dog lover and proud owner of one Labrador retriever, he is involved with the Humane Society and local charities.

LYNDA TEALER

EXECUTIVE ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR FOR ADMINISTRATION

Lynda Tealer (TEA-ler), one of the nation's top athletic administrators, joined the University of Florida Athletic Association staff in August of 2003, was elevated to Senior Associate Athletics Director - Senior Woman Administrator in the fall of 2007 and to her current role as Executive Associate Athletics Director for Administration in August of 2012.

She oversees the UF women's athletics program, as well as the sports health, information technology and the human resources departments, while supervising the women's basketball, gymnastics, lacrosse, softball and volleyball programs. Tealer headed the committee that explored adding a 21st varsity sport to the Gator program; the end result was the announcement of a Gator women's lacrosse team that began competition during the 2009-10 season and reached the 'Final Four' in just its third year of play.

Tealer came to the UAA from the Southland Conference, where she was an Associate Commissioner since April of 2000. During her tenure in Frisco, Texas, Tealer served as the conference's senior woman administrator and oversaw the league's regular season and championship competitions. She also assisted with administrative operations in addition to serving as a liaison for the coaches, championships and senior woman administrators committees.

Prior to joining the Southland Conference, Tealer was at Santa Clara University for four years, joining the Bronco's staff in November of 1995 as the compliance director and was elevated to SCU's Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Services and senior woman administrator five months later. In July of 1999, Tealer was appointed Assistant Athletic Director for Intercollegiate Sports in addition to her senior woman administrator position while providing direction for the sports of men's and women's basketball, women's volleyball, and men's and women's cross country.

While at SCU, Tealer was named to the NCAA Division I Management Council in 1998 as the Division I-AAA at-large representative. She assumed the West Coast Conference representative position (Oct. 1999-Jan. '00) and rejoined the Council as the Southland Conference representative in January of 2001. She also was a member of the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee.

Tealer is a 1992 graduate of the University of San Diego, where she earned a degree in business administration while playing basketball four years for the Toreros. She also possesses a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Texas at Austin School of Law, where she was a member of the Thurgood Marshall Legal Society.

Tealer is a native of San Diego, but was born in Frankfurt, Germany, on March 26, 1970. She and her husband, Cedric, have a son, Dallas (born Sept. 24, 1999), and a daughter, Brooklyn (born Oct. 26, 2005), both of whom conquered the finer points of the Gator chomp at a young age.

COACH BUTLER ON CHANDLER COOPER:

"It's fair to say that Chandler is one of the nation's best shooters among all players in this year's signing class. She really established herself as one of the best, if not the best players in the entire country after the way she played this past spring and summer. One of the things I like the most about Chandler is that I don't think she wants the distinction of being a shooter - she is a ballplayer. She can pass, she can handle the ball, she is a great decision maker, she is long and will make a difference in our defense by getting tips and anticipating. She comes from an area where basketball is very, very well taught and I think that shows up in her game. She is a coach's daughter and that also shows in her game. Is she a great shooter? Absolutely, but I think it is just the beginning. I think that there are many more ways that Chandler will contribute to us winning."

Chandler Cooper enrolled at UF for the 2012 summer semester that began in July … one of five members of Clarksville High School's senior class that signed to play basketball with an NCAA Division I school: Bashaara Graves (Tennessee), Tiasha Gray (Austin Peay), Tia Nicholson (Tennessee Tech) and Jessy Ward (Mississippi State) … enjoys fishing, hunting and spending time on the water … interested in a career in occupational therapy … her father Al Cooper played college hoops at David Lipscomb (Tenn.) University from 1986-90, when the school was competing at the NAIA level and averaged an NAIA all-time record 110.3 points per game during his senior year, a record that still stands … her father is a highly regarded boys basketball coach in the state of Tennessee and Chandler considers the "most influential person" in her basketball development, "always preaching fundamentals" … when her parents were trying to pick between two options for what her first name should be, her father continually repeated the phrases "Blake Cooper for Three" and "Chandler Cooper for Three" and selected the one that sounded the best … has been dribbling a basketball since she was four years old, even playing in a five-and-older league when her father fudged her birthdate … accompanied her father to the Canary Islands for two weeks when she was in fifth grade to help him run his basketball camps, serving as "the demonstrator" for all drills … the majority of her relatives are either coaches or principals, including her mother Melisse Williams, who is the head of Liberty Elementary School … will be the 17th Gator from the state of Tennessee … one of seven freshmen (four true freshmen) on Florida's 2012-13 roster

COACH BUTLER ON JANUARY MILLER:

"January is a Gator through and through. She was our first commitment which to me means she is a leader and has guts; I admired that about her from the beginning. SEC WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

ESPN & SEC Reach Unprecedented 15-Year Agreement

On Aug. 25, 2008, ESPN and the Southeastern Conference (SEC) announced it had reached a milestone 15-year agreement beginning in 2009-10 and continuing through 2023-24.

The landmark deal - the longest national rights agreement in ESPN history -- will result in ESPN entities (ESPN, ESPN on ABC, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPN Regional Television, ESPN360.com, ESPN Mobile TV, ESPN GamePlan, ESPN FULL COURT, ESPN International, ESPN Deportes, ESPN Classic) carrying more than 5,500 SEC events - including football, men's and women's basketball, Olympic sports and SEC Championships.

ESPN has televised the SEC since 1982. All national programming will fall under the branding "SEC on ESPN."

As part of this agreement with regard to SEC Women's Basketball:

ESPN AND ESPN2

SEC teams will make a minimum of 16 appearances (minimum of 4 conference games) on ESPN or ESPN2 and one of the networks will also televise the conference tournament championship game.

ESPNU

The network will also feature a minimum of 16 appearances (minimum of 4 conference games) by SEC teams, in addition to the SEC Tournament semifinals.

ESPN REGIONAL TELEVISION (KNOWN AS THE SEC NETWORK)

ERT will syndicate a game-of-the-week during the regular season. The markets that will air the package represent more than 54 million television households, or 47 percent of the U.S.

FOX Sports Net and SEC Women's Basketball

FOX Sports Net (FSN), the nation's leader in local sports, announced on July 15, 2009, a new multi-year television rights agreement with ESPN that expands its long-time partnership with the Southeastern Conference (SEC). ESPN secured the rights of SEC content in August 2008.

Beginning with the 2009-10 academic year, FSN's three regional sports networks serving the SEC territory – FOX Sports South, Sun Sports and FOX Sports Southwest – will be the outlets for a minimum of 91 SEC athletic events each year. Events will include:

- Seven live, exclusive football games
- 20 men's basketball games
- 24 women's basketball games (16 regular season, eight tournament)
- 16 baseball games (10 regular season, six tournament)
- 24 additional Olympic sporting events (softball, volleyball, soccer, gymnastics)

FSN will distribute these events to more than 24 million cable and satellite households across the SEC coverage area.

FOX Sports South – and its sister networks FOX Sports Carolinas and FOX Sports Tennessee – collectively reach more than 12.6 million cable and satellite television households in seven states in the Southeast, including Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee. Sun Sports reaches more than 6.5 million homes in Florida. FOX Sports Southwest reaches over 10.1 million cable and satellite TV homes in Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma and parts of New Mexico.

CSS (COMCAST/CHARTER SPORTS SOUTHEAST)

The network will air a minimum of 16 regular-season games each year

SEC TOURNAMENT

SEC Women's Basketball Tournament

SEC Tournament Changes

For the second time in Southeastern Conference history, the Women's Basketball Tournament will undergo a format change. This time for the 2012-13 event. The tournament, which had been a four-day event featuring 12 teams since 1992, will now expand to 14 teams, adding an extra day of competition.

The 2013 SEC Women's Tournament will be held at The Arena at Gwinnett Center in Duluth, Ga., from March 6-10, 2013. The addition of a day to this year's tournament will feature two additional contests played on Wednesday. Seeds 11 through 14 will compete in the opening games of the bracket, with the rest of the event continuing on Thursday.

As SEC Assistant Commissioner Leslie Claybrook explains, the format change will give SEC fans another chance to watch quality women's basketball.

"The high profile of the tournament and the fact that it gives every institution the opportunity to play and compete for a championship was very important in the conversation about expanding the tournament," Claybrook stated. "Our league is good enough to include all 14 teams and give them the opportunity to compete and win the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament."

The format changes are due in large part to the new additions of Missouri and Texas A&M into the Southeastern Conference, with both universities competing in the league starting in the fall of 2012. Texas A&M won a women's hoops National Championship in 2011, while Missouri advanced to the Big 12 Women's Tournament last year.

Other than the two newly added Wednesday games, the bracket remains identical to that of years prior.

"Who doesn't love more basketball?" Claybrook explained, noting the SEC fan experience will only improve with the new games at this year's event. "This gives our fans the chance to see all of our member institutions play, without changing what they (SEC fans) have become accustomed too."

Ticket books for the 2013 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament will go on sale in October. This year's event will feature general admission seating for the Wednesday and Thursday sessions. Single session tickets will go on sale the week of the tournament.

2011-12 SEASON REVIEW

FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

2011-12 GATOR SEASON REVIEW

OPENING TIP-OFF

A veteran team that featured five seniors helped the 2011-12 Gators earn the program's 18th postseason appearance in the last 20 years, making its 13th trip to the NCAA Championship.

Florida upset No. 16/19-ranked Ohio State in the first round before falling to top-ranked and eventual NCAA champion Baylor.

The NCAA second-round appearance was the eighth in program history and the Gator's first since 2009, also the last time Florida competed in the Big Dance.

That 2009 second round matchup also was the last Florida faced a No. 1-ranked team.

FLORIDA'S NCAA FIRST ROUND WIN...

- was Florida's 20th win of the season and its 12th 20-win season in program history;
- advanced the Gators to the NCAA Second Round for the eighth time in program history;
- was Amanda Butler's 98th win at UF, making her the winningest Gator coach through their first five years (Carol Ross had 97 win through her first five years en route to becoming the winningest coach in program history with 247 victories in 12 years).

OTHER NOTES ABOUT UF'S NCAA FIRST ROUND WIN

- Jordan Jones grabbed a career-high 8 rebounds, marking the first time this year and second time in her career she was the Gator's game leader on the boards (the eighth rebound was the 350th of her career)
- Jones' seventh and final point of the game was the 1,400th of her career
- Jennifer George scored in double figures for the eighth straight game and the 24th time his year (both team highs)
- Lanita Bartley tied her career-best of three 3-pointers
- 6 different Gators converted a 3-pointer, the most in one game this year
- UF collected at least 20 offensive rebounds for the 11th time
- the seven three-pointers in the first half were the most this year
- it was UF's 17th game decided by 10 points or less this year

FLORIDA'S FINAL RUN

The Gators won seven of their last 12 games.

Prior to the NCAA Second Round loss, of Florida's four losses in the months of February & March, three of those four games were by a combined total of 14 points and ALL of those setbacks were on the road against nationally ranked opponents (vs. Kentucky, at Tennessee, at South Carolina and at Vanderbilt in OT).

EVERY YEAR UNDER BUTLER

Florida's inclusion in the NCAA field marked the program's fifth consecutive postseason appearance - every year under head coach Amanda Butler. She is the only one of the eight head coaches who has done so! In fact, Butler was the first Gator head coach to earn a postseason berth in her first year with the program.

FANS GET THEIR MONEY'S WORTH!

Florida has played 55 games over the last three seasons with outcomes decided by 10 points or less, posting a 29-26 record in those tight ballgames.

17 games fit into that category during the 2011-12 season, when UF posted a 7-10 record.

10 of UF's 16 SEC regular-season games in 2011-12 were decided by six points or less, with 11 of 16 by decided by single digits.

Twenty-three of UF's program-record 35 games during the 2010-11 season were decided by 10 points or fewer, with 16 being six-point differences - including the final two of the season. The Gators were 14-9 in games decided by 10 points or less in 2010-11.

During the 2009-10 season, the Gators played 15 games decided by fewer than 10 points and posted a 8-7 record in those outings.

D-FENCE

As a team, Florida held opponents to 60.8 points per game - the second-fewest in a season in the 38-year history of the program. The 1983-84 squad held its foes to 59.1 points per game.

Opponents shot 38.3 percent from the floor, the lowest since the 2000-01 Gators limited foes to a 36.9 percent clip.

From beyond the arc, opponents connected on just 30.0 percent, the third-lowest accuracy mark from the three-point arc in program history and the lowest since the program-standard 25.8 percent set by the 1997-98 team. The 1987-88 club limited foes to a 27.7 percent mark in the inaugural year of the three-pointer.

Florida also sported a +5.3 rebound margin, its best since the 2000-01 team held a +7.9 margin.

FUN FACT

Not only was Amanda Butler the starting point guard on Florida's first-ever NCAA Tournament team in 1993, that inaugural game was played against Bowling Green

COACH BUTLER & THE POST-SEASON

Head Coach Amanda Butler is no stranger to postseason play.

During her two years as an assistant coach at UF, Butler was on staff when the Gators earned an NCAA bid both seasons, including the 1997 run into the Elite Eight.

In her fourth and final year as an assistant coach at Austin Peay State University, the 2001 Lady Govs earned just the second-ever NCAA bid in program history and the first since 1996.

In her last five years with UNC Charlotte, the 49ers competed in the postseason each time, earning an NCAA bid in 2003 and a WNIT in 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007, the final two of those coming when Butler served as the head coach of the program.

STEWART'S UNIQUENESS IN SENIOR QUINTET

The 2011-12 roster features five seniors, each of whom boasts starting experience

Of the five seniors, only Azania Stewart was recruited by and will have played four years under coach Amanda Butler. Fifth-year senior Ndidi Madu signed under former coach Carolyn Peck; Jordan Jones played her freshman year at South Carolina before transferring to UF; Deana Allen and Lanita Bartley both played two years at a junior college before transferring to UF.

SWAT SISTERS

With her first of two blocked shots during the Jan. 1 game against Kentucky, Jennifer George became one of eight Gators in program history who have blocked at least 100 career shots.

With senior Azania Stewart having already swatted 100+, the 2011-12 squad is only the second team in UF history with a pair of 100-plus shot blockers on it. The 1984-85 Gator team featured Keturah Bell (160 career blocks) and future 1992 U.S. Olympian Tammy Jackson (121).

STEWART SWATS 200

With her third of three blocked shots in the SEC Tournament first round win against Auburn, Azania Stewart recorded her 200th blocked shot and became just the third Gator in program history to block as many, joining Vanessa Hayden (357 blocks, 2000-04) and Quientella Bonner (230 blocks, 1976-81).

GATOR WATCH

Junior forward Jennifer George, who was voted by the league's coaches as a first-team All-SEC performer, led UF in scoring (12.8 ppg) and rebounding (8.8 rpg), an effort that also ranked second in the SEC (in SEC games and all games).

She posted 15 double-doubles - and 19 in her career. George compiled a streak of eight consecutive double-doubles, a run that ranked tied as the fourth-longest in UF history. The run ended at Georgia on Jan. 12, when she posted 15 points with eight rebounds.

Not bad considering she was held scoreless on 0-for-1 shooting with three rebounds in the season opener versus Michigan!!

George also had a team-high 24 double-figure scoring games.

Senior Jordan Jones did a bit of everything for the Gators during 2011-12, contributing 11.2 points, in addition to 3.8 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 1.1 steals, while hitting 67-of-198 treys (33.8%).

Jones had started 43 consecutive games prior to missing the Feb. 2 game at LSU because of a concussion she sustained during the Jan. 29 game at Arkansas.

Jones had converted at least one three-point attempt in 11 consecutive games before going 0-3 from beyond the arc against South Carolina on Jan. 8. That was her career third double-digit streak of converting three-pointers in a game, having already notched runs of 23 and 16.

Since missing against the Gamecocks, Jones hit from long range in 15 straight games - the fourth double-figure streak of her career - before missing all three of her attempts in the finale against Baylor.

She had at least one three-pointer in all except four games during her final season (one of which she didn't play in).

During her three-year tenure at UF, Jones drained 194 three-pointers, the fourth most in a career (third is 212 by Sha Brooks, 2005-09), as well as 291 overall.

In 2010-11, Jones was 72-of-186 from long range for 38.7%, the second-highest accuracy mark in a season in UF history. Her 72 treys tied for the seventh-most in a season.

BARTLEY'S BROUGHT IT!

Senior point guard Lanita Bartley stepped up her game during her second and final season wearing the Gator orange & blue.

She was Florida's third-leading scorer (9.3

2011-12 GATOR SEASON REVIEW

ppg) along with 5.1 rebounds (third most) and led the club in assists (3.2 apg) and steals (1.9 pg).

The 5-foot-6 Bartley also tied for UF's second-leading rebounder (5.1 rpg) in SEC games!

During a four-game span from Jan. 29-Feb. 9, Bartley helped the Gators post a 3-1 record (the loss a double-overtime heartbreaker at Arkansas), while lead the team with 16.3 points and converting a sizzling 10-of-15 three-pointers (66.7%).

Bartley drilled a total of 22 treys - including the 10 she dropped in those four games.

ROOKIE REVIEW

Andrea Vilaró Aragonés, Florida's only freshman who suited up during the 2011-12 season, posted back-to-back career scoring efforts against nationally-ranked opponents during the week of Feb. 13 She scored eight on the road at #24 Vanderbilt, before tallying 10 in the win against #18/15 Georgia, when she hit a pair of big three-pointers that sparked Gator runs. She also collected a career-high-tying four rebounds against the Lady Bulldogs.

She totaled four three-pointers in the two games that week, more than any other Gator, hitting a respectable 35.4 percent from beyond the arc and helping Florida earn its seventh SEC win of the year.

Vilaró Aragonés, who missed the first four games of the year due to the passing of her mother, has shown improvement in her game each week, capped they week when she averaged 9.0 points and was UF's third-leading scorer in the pair of games.

ODD RUN OF EMOTION

Including the Gator's SEC Tournament opening-round game against Auburn, Florida faced an out-going coach in two games in a three game stretch prior to the NCAA Tournament.

Florida was MSU's first opponent following coach Sharon Fanning-Otis' announcement, earning a win against the Bulldogs on Feb. 23.

The Gators then faced Tennessee (and Coach Pat Summitt, who announced her retirement at the end of the year) in Knoxville to end the regular season and ended the run having to battle emotion-charged Auburn led by coach Nell Fortner, who announced she too would be stepping down from her post at the end of the season.

SENIOR TIME!

During Florida's three-game win streak in mid-February, the top four leading scorers were seniors. Point guard Lanita Bartley averaged 15.3 points and a team-best 7.3 rebounds during that span, while connecting on 61.5 percent of her shots overall, including 7-of-12 three-pointers. Deana Allen averaged 9.7 points during those three games, followed by Azania Stewart's 9.3 ppg and Ndidi Madu's 9.0 ppg contributions.

THIS ONE REALLY WAS A HEARTBREAKER

While Florida has more than had its fair share of games decided by six points or less this year, its 75-69 overtime loss at Vanderbilt on Feb. 16th may have been the most heartbreaking.

The Commodores' Christina Foggie launched a 'Hail Mary' at the buzzer that hit the backboard, all sides of the rim and somehow dropped in and tied the game and sent the game to overtime. It was discovered too late, however, that the game clock did not run during the final 75 seconds for almost 14 seconds.

DEANA ALLEN STARS OFF THE BENCH

Senior Deana Allen provided Florida with a definite spark off the bench in every game she played during 2011-12 and that effort didn't go unnoticed as she was voted the SEC Co-6th Woman of the Year.

Allen averaged 7.7 points (fifth on team) and 4.7 rebounds (third on team), with 1.3 steals (second on the team). She hit 30.8 percent from the three-point arc (the third-highest on the team) and 72.1 percent from the free throw line (highest percentage).

The only game Allen missed was the season-opener against Michigan when she sat out to recover from a concussion.

Allen did make her first start of the year on Jan. 8 against South Carolina, responding with nine points, a season-high 10 rebounds and a team-best three assists with a pair of steals. She followed that with another start and a 14-point, six-rebound, four-steal performance at Georgia. Allen started seven consecutive SEC games this year, but has come off the bench in the final seven of the regular season.

Azania Stewart, who finished her Gator career ranked third with 205 blocked shots, earned a spot on Great Britain's 2012 Olympic Team and started every game in London for her native country.*

EVERYONE SCORES!

Six times during the 2011-12 season every Gator who suited up for a game scored: at San Francisco (Dec. 7), vs. Samford (Dec. 28) vs. LSU twice (Jan. 15 & Feb. 2), vs. Ole Miss (Feb. 5) and vs. Mississippi State (Feb. 23).

TWO BIG WINS IN ONE WEEK

Florida earned two significant wins during the week of Jan. 30, when the team got to an even 5-5 in the league standings. The Gator's 73-64 win at LSU on Feb. 2 marked their first against LSU in Baton Rouge since January of 1996. The 84-55 victory against Ole Miss on Feb. 5 was the team's largest margin of victory in an SEC game since a 38-point win versus South Carolina on Jan. 28, 2001.

UF VS. RANKED TEAMS

Florida was 3-8 during the 2011-12 season against Associated Press nationally-ranked opponents, and 3-9 versus teams ranked in the ESPN-USA Today Coaches Poll at tip-time (Vanderbilt was receiving votes in the AP poll, but No. 24 in Coaches Poll).

The Gators most recently posted a 70-65 win against No. 16/18 Ohio State in the NCAA First Round.

Including the 2012 NCAA win against the Buckeyes, Lady Bulldogs and Seminoles, Florida has collected 48 upset wins against a higher-ranked opponent, with 28 of those coming when the Gators were unranked.

HELLO, AGAIN!

The 2011-12 season marked the beginning of new rotation for the SEC's 16-game schedule, with each team still playing the other 11 schools once, while keeping a home-and-home series with its 'natural geographic rival' (UF's is Georgia). Florida's four other games were home-and-home series' against Kentucky, South Carolina, LSU and Ole Miss.

JONES VOTED TO ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT TEAM

Jordan Jones was voted to the Capital One Academic All-District 4 women's basketball team that was released on Feb. 2.

In the classroom, Jones earned a spot on the 2010 & 2011 SEC Academic Honor Roll and the 2008 SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll.

Jones, who received her bachelor's degree in business in May of 2010 and is taking coursework toward a master's degree in sports management, moves onto the national ballot for the CoSIDA Academic All-America Team, joining members of the other seven districts.

UNFRIENDLY THREE-GAME ROAD TRIP ENDS WITH A HISTORIC WIN

Florida lost a tough 57-52 decision at No. 6 Kentucky on Sunday, January 22nd and a 73-72 double-overtime setback at Arkansas on Jan. 29, but capped the trip with a 73-64 victory at LSU where the Gators earned their first win since January 21, 1996.

THE PERFECT 10

Because of injuries, the Gators were limited to 10 healthy players for every game except the season opener versus Michigan when only nine Gators suited up.

STRONGEST GATOR

Jennifer George was unquestionably the strongest member of the team. Tested during the preseason with her legs, she moved 225 pounds for a dead lift (2 sets, 9 reps) and 185 pounds for a front squad (2 sets, 10 reps), while using 65 pound dumb bells for a bench press (2 sets, 6 reps).

GEORGE JOINS ELITE SWAT TEAM

Jennifer George's first blocked shot of the game against Kentucky on Jan. 1 was the 100th of her career (Keyla Snowden, 14:13 mark of first half). She became the eighth Gator to block 100 in career.

GEORGE HONORED AS SEC PLAYER OF WEEK

Jennifer George was named the SEC Player of the Week for the games played Dec. 19-25.

George was the catalyst in Florida winning its own Gator Holiday Classic, as she totaled 34 points and 23 rebounds en route to earning MVP honors, the first such honor of her career.

GATORS IN THE GOLDEN STATE

When Florida played at San Francisco on Dec. 7, it was the first time the Gators have played a game in the state of California since Nov. 18, 2006.

FLORIDA IN THE BIG APPLE

The Nov. 25 game against La Salle was just the second time in program history Florida played a game in the state of New York. The only other trip to the Big Apple was on Nov. 17, 2000, when the Gators won at Fordham, 76-36.

I LOVE NY

Lanita Bartley made the most of her first-ever visit to New York, averaging 22.0 points and 8.0 rebounds, while hitting 16-of-17 free throws and leading the Gators to two wins.

While it was their first trip to the Big Apple, Jordan Jones and Jennifer George put up big numbers in two tournament wins, with Jones contributing 18;0 points and 6.0 rebounds, while hitting 7-of-18 three-pointers, and George tallying 13.5 points and 12.0 rebounds, converting 68.8 percent from the field (11-16).

Bartley and George earn a spot on the Courtyard LaGuardia Turkey Classic All-Tournament Team for their performances.

GATORS IN THE BIG APPLE

Only four Gators on the 13-player roster had ever stepped foot in the state of New York prior to the Courtyard LaGuardia Turkey Classic hosted by Long Island University, Nov. 25-26. Jennifer George, Jordan Jones, Ndidi Madu and Azania Stewart had previously visited New York.

OPENING WITH A SMALL BENCH

Florida suited up just nine players for the Nov. 11 season-opener against Michigan, with Deana Allen listed as day-to-day, Andrea Vilaro Aragones in Spain with the passing of her mother and freshmen Viktorija Dimaite and Carlie Needles redshirting the season due to injury.

All nine played at least 10 minutes in the game against the Wolverines and eight scored.

The Gators did Allen back for its next game versus Stetson and she responded with 11 points and eight rebounds in 19 minutes of work.

A SAFER, COZIER O'CONNELL CENTER

The O'Connell Center underwent renovations during the 2011 summer. New handrails were installed throughout the lower level section, all of the 13-year-old lower level bleachers were replaced with contoured blue seats and the original, 31-year-old support structure and undercarriage were replaced. These upgrades slightly reduced the maximum capacity for basketball games from 12,000 to 11,373.

ALL STARTERS FROM 2010-11 RETURN

For the third time since the 1990-91 season, the Gators returned all five starters from the previous year (1996-97 and 2003-04 were the other previous years and both ended in trips to the NCAA Tournament – 1997 team went to Elite Eight; 2004 team to second round).

TOUGH 24 HOURS

The Gators suffered tough news on Nov. 6 and 7 to two of their freshmen. Carlie Needles tore the ACL in her right knee during a scrimmage (non-contact, defensive play) on Nov. 6. Less than 24 hours later, Andrea Vilaró Aragonés' mother Maria Angels Aragones Barbera passed away from cancer. Andrea flew back to Barcelona, Spain on Nov. 3 to be with her mother and family.

ANOTHER REDSHIRT ROOKIE

Upon signing with UF, Viktorija Dimaite's plan with the Gator coaching staff had always been to redshirt the 2011-12 season to develop her strength and get physically stronger. The day before the 2011 Under-20 European Championships were to begin, Dimaite dislocated her right ankle and was unable to play with her native Lithuanian U20 team that was set to compete. Dimaite spent the majority of the 2011-12 rehabilitating her injury.

Winter 1972 – Dr. Ruth Alexander, Donna Deutsch, Mimi Ryan and Linda Hall Thornton, with the assistance of Dr. Clifford Boyd, write the official proposal suggesting guidelines for an intercollegiate athletics program at the University of Florida.

Members of that team include Valerie Bazarte, Susie Brownlee, Sue Chambers, Emma Gracey, Vicky Lavinsky, Cassie Macias, Kathy Wagner and Monte Wynn.

July 1974 – Dr. Paula Welch is hired as the Lady Gators first official coach and teaches in the Women's Physical Education Department.

1993 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

In just her third season as Lady Gators Head Coach, Carol Ross was able to achieve a first in the program's 18-year history: earn a bid to the 48-team NCAA Tournament field. Led by senior captain LaTonya McGhee and junior guard Amanda Butler, Florida proved it belonged in postseason play. The Lady Gators opened the tournament on the road at Bowling Green State University on March 17 before a school-record crowd of 4,408 in Anderson Arena, which was also the third largest crowd attendance in a first round game. UF halted the Falcons' perfect 13-0 home record when McGhee banked in a 15-footer with two seconds remaining to give UF the thrilling 69-67 victory. Merlakia Jones led UF with 18 points and Bridget Pettis added 17 in the historic win. The Lady Gators traveled again in the second round, but came up short against postseason veteran Virginia in front of 5,740 Cavalier faithful. McGhee ended her career with a 14-point effort but more importantly helped lay the foundation for seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

1994 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Under the leadership of senior captain Amanda Butler, the Lady Gators reached the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. The Gators matched a school-record 22 wins and finished third in the SEC. Junior Merlakia Jones led UF offensively with 18.6 points per game, while DeLisha Milton averaged a double-double of 11.7 points and 11.5 rebounds during her freshman campaign. The Lady Gators earned the No. 4 seed in the NCAA West Region and were eligible to play host to their first round game, but were forced to travel to College Station, Texas, due to a Rod Stewart concert scheduled in the O'Connell Center. Florida rallied from a 14-point deficit against hosting Texas A&M and tied the score at 74 with 2:31 remaining after senior Kerry Cremeans caned a three-pointer off an assist from Butler. Takilya Davis later hit a jumper to give UF a 76-74 lead. With the score knotted at 76, the Gators turned the ball over with 21 seconds left and the Aggies converted two free throws with four ticks on the clock to end UF's season.

1995 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Lady Gators earned their third consecutive bid to the NCAA Championship, one of just 22 schools to advance to "The Dance" for the third straight year. Led by captains DeLisha Milton and Crystal Parker, the team won a school-record 24 wins and finished fourth in the SEC. During the first round of the NCAA East Regional in Charlottesville, Va., UF played Radford and easily defeated the Highlanders 89-49. Both Merlakia Jones and Milton produced double-doubles and Dana Smith contributed three second-half treys. In the second round, and for the second time in three years, the Lady Gators faced a ranked Virginia squad on its home floor. The team was in position for an upset, but the Cavalier proved to be too strong, winning 72-67. UF was led by Merlakia Jones' 27 points, who became the first Gator to eclipse the 2,000-point plateau, ending her career with 2,001. Freshman Murriel Page showed signs of the All-American she would later develop into, averaging 10.6 points and 7.2 rebounds during her rookie season.

1996 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

For the fourth time in school history, the Lady Gators secured a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Led by team captains DeLisha Milton and Mahogany Hudson, Florida earned the No. 5 seed in the Mideast Region and became one of 16 teams to earn four straight NCAA bids. Crystal Parker also became the first player in Lady Gator history to be a member of four NCAA Tournament teams. UF ran into red-shot San Francisco in the opening round, falling 68-61, as the Lady Dons marched into the Sweet 16 by upsetting host Duke in the next game. Former Gator Amanda Butler broke into the coaching ranks this year, when Head Coach Carol Ross hired her as an assistant coach at the start of the season.

1997 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The 1996-97 academic year marked the 25th season of women's varsity athletics at the University of Florida and the Lady Gator Basketball team ensured it would not be soon forgotten, staging the most impressive postseason run in program history. First-Team All-American DeLisha Milton, along with fellow co-captain Mahogany Hudson, led the Lady Gators a 24-9 overall record. As the No. 3 seed in the Mideast Region, UF was selected to play host to an NCAA Sub-Regional for the first time and responded, thumping Florida International, 92-68, behind 21 points from Dana Smith and a career-high six 3-pointers from Talatha Bingham. Murriel Page scored 35 points with 14 rebounds in a 92-78 victory over Southern California and the Lady Gators marched into the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history. UF's magical run did not stop there, as UF routed fifth-ranked and second-seeded Louisiana Tech, 71-57, to advance to the Elite Eight. The historical season finally came to an end when second-ranked and top-seeded Old Dominion managed a 53-51 decision, as UF had three shots in the final 10 seconds that would have tied the score, but all just rolled around the rim.

1998 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Led by First-Team All-American Murriel Page and her fellow senior co-captains Mahogany Hudson and Dana Smith, the Lady Gators fought through an injury-plagued season to a 23-9 record, their fifth consecutive 20-win season and a second-place finish in the Southeastern Conference. UF became one of just 12 schools to compete in each of the last six NCAA Tournaments, while earning its second consecutive trip to the Sweet 16. UF was rewarded for its outstanding regular-season play, being named one of 16 schools to host an NCAA Sub-Regional, which it did for the second straight year. In a bracket plagued with upsets (highlighted by No. 16-seed Harvard defeating No. 1-seed Stanford), the third-seeded Lady Gators couldn't continue the fun as they fell to No. 2-seeded Duke, 71-58.

1999 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Lady Gators knew that matching the success of the past two seasons would be tough, especially after losing three key seniors. Even with an uphill battle, Florida, led by team captain Talatha Bingham, was still strong enough to earn its seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament bid - one of just 11 teams to compete in the "Big Dance" every year since 1993. UF was also one of a record-setting eight SEC schools to secure a bid. The Lady Gators would not dance long, however, dropping a frustrating 87-84 overtime decision to Arizona in the opening round.

2001 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The 2000-01 season was one of the most exciting in school history, as the Lady Gators tied a school record with 24 wins and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Captains Tombi Bell, Misty Knight and Tamara Stocks were fueled all season by what they felt was a snub from the 2000 event and led Florida to a second-place tie in the Southeastern Conference, winning a program-best 11 league games. This was the eighth overall trip to the "Big Dance" for the Gators and their third time playing host to the opening rounds.

2002 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

For the ninth time in 10 years, Carol Ross successfully led the Lady Gators to the NCAA Tournament. Stunningly, it would be her last because six days after the final horn sounded on Florida's opening-round loss, Ross stepped down as winningest head coach in school history, with a record of 247-121. The team was led by senior tri-captains Monique Cardenas, Lindsey DeLoach and Brandi McCain.

2004 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Head Coach Carolyn Peck guided UF to the greatest one-year turnaround in school history, bouncing back from a 9-19 record the previous season to a 19-11 record and an NCAA Tournament bid. Captains Vanessa Hayden, Sarah Lowe and Kelly Stevenson led the Gators to a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the second round for the sixth time in school history. UF overcame 16,000 deafening New Mexico fans at The Pit with an opening-round 68-56 win against the hosting Lobos, before falling in the next game to Baylor, which went on to win the NCAA title the following season.

2006 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Fueled by two of the biggest upset wins in program history, the Gators earned their way back into the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time. Senior tri-captain Sarah Lowe hit the game-winning free throws with 3.2 seconds remaining in overtime to help the Gators upset No. 2 LSU, 79-78, in UF's final home game. A few nights later, senior tri-captain Brittany Davis poured in a career-high 29 points to help stun No. 5 Tennessee in the regular-season finale, as UF became just the second unranked team ever to defeat the Lady Vols in Knoxville. The Gators, who raced out to the best 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15-game starts in program history en route to a 21-9 overall record, received the No. 6 seed in the NCAA Albuquerque Region but dropped their opening-round game to New Mexico, 83-59.

2009 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

With senior Sha Brooks leading the backcourt and senior Marsahe Dotson patrolling the frontcourt, the Gators won four games against nationally-ranked teams, including three upset victories, and earned their 12th NCAA Tournament appearance. Amanda Butler became the sixth woman in NCAA history to play for and later coach that same team to a top-25 ranking, as the 2008-09 squad ranked as high as No. 9 in the Feb. 9 AP Poll. Newcomer Steffi Sorensen led a record-setting three-point shooting display, as the Gators set new marks with 221 three-pointers and hitting with a 36.5 percent accuracy mark. UF downed Temple, 70-57, in the NCAA First Round and tied a program record with its 24th win of the season. The Gators fell in the next round to eventual champion Connecticut, which played on its home court and raced to an undefeated season.

2012 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

A veteran team that featured five seniors helped the 2011-12 Gators earn the program's 18th postseason appearance in the last 20 years, making its 13th trip to the NCAA Championship. Florida, which compiled a 20-13 overall record and the 12th 20-win season in Gator history, upset No. 16/19-ranked Ohio State in the first round before falling to top-ranked and eventual NCAA champion Baylor. The NCAA second-round appearance was the eighth in program history and the Gator's first since 2009, also the last time Florida competed in the Big Dance. As a team, Florida held opponents to 60.8 points per game - the second-fewest in a season in the 38-year history of the program. The 1983-84 squad held its foes to 59.1 points per game. Opponents shot 38.3 percent from the floor, the lowest since the 2000-01 Gators limited foes to a 36.9 percent clip. Florida also sported a +5.3 rebound margin, its best since the 2000-01 team held a +7.9 margin. Junior forward Jennifer George, who was voted by the league's coaches as a first-team All-SEC performer, led UF in scoring (12.8 ppg) and rebounding (8.8 rpg), an effort that also ranked second in the SEC (in SEC games and all games). Senior Jordan Jones did a bit of everything for the Gators during 2011-12, contributing 11.2 points, in addition to 3.8 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 1.1 steals, while hitting 67-of-198 treys (33.8%).

E* - Elite Draft. (The 1997 WNBA Draft was the first in history of the league, and teams selected players in three different stages. On Jan. 22, 1997, the league assigned a total of 16 players - two to each team - in no particular order. On Feb. 27, 1997, the WNBA held its Elite Draft, where two additional players were assigned to each team, again in no particular order.)

Marshae Dotson is congratulated by head coach Amanda Butler after Dotson became the 20th and most recent Gator to join the 1,000-point club, eclipsing the milestone against Mississippi State on Feb. 10, 2008.

On Dec. 22, 2007 versus Saint Louis, junior Sha Brooks became the 19th Gator to score 1,000 points during her career, nailing a three-pointer from the right side of the arc that put her over the top of the milestone. She eclipsed the mark in her 72nd career game, the seventh fastest in program history.

Sophia Witherspoon (left) and Rhvonja Smith both scored the 1,000th point of their respective careers during the same game - Dec. 13, 1990 versus Alabama-Huntsville.

Worth Noting

Jordan Jones scored 1,393 points during her four-year collegiate career, with 974 coming at Florida and 419 her freshman year at South Carolina.

THE STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER

A record-sellout crowd of 12,222 fans packed the O'Connell Center on Feb. 11, 2001 to watch the Gators battle Tennessee. It remains the largest crowd ever to watch a regular-season women's basketball game on any level - college, pro or international - inside the state of Florida.

STEPHEN MORTON

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center is the game-day home of Gator Basketball.

The $14 million dollar facility, named for former University of Florida president Stephen C. O'Connell (196773), has become a showcase for collegiate basketball. The multipurpose sports center features a main arena, which underwent improvements during the summer of 2011 and is capable of seating 11,373 spectators and fans, covering more than 3.6 acres and containing 292,000 square feet.

The structure housed the Gator Basketball offices prior to the opening of the new UF Basketball Complex in October of 2001.

In addition to the main arena, the O'Connell Center houses the practice court, two weight rooms, a natatorium, an indoor track, a private gymnastics arena, dance studio, martial arts studio and several classrooms. The indoor track, which underwent resurfacing during the summer of 2002, and the Olympic size pool are considered amongst the fastest race locations in the country.

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center is also the site of University of Florida graduation ceremonies, as well as many other university functions, including Career Day. The facility has also accommodated numerous NCAA championship events, concerts, step shows, comedians, guest speakers, Disney shows, conventions and banquets.

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center has been the site of all Gator Basketball games since its opening in 1981.

The Gators' home court has a championship-feel to it -- literally! During the 2006 national championship celebration for the men's team, the UAA administration unveiled the 2006 Final Four floor, which it purchased so that both teams could play on for the 2006-07 season once it was refinished and Gatorized. Also new in the O'Connell Center for the 2006-07 season was four 12' x 16' videoboards (10 mm resolution). The total cost of the video project was $2.5 million.

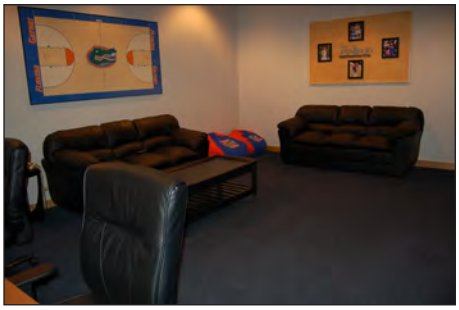
FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX

The Basketball Complex underwent a $1.8 million facelift that was completed in September of 2007, when dynamic floor-to-ceiling graphics, display cases and video displays were installed throughout the building.

Florida's state-of-the-art basketball practice facility opened in October of 2001, with the initial $10 million securing the two-story, 47,505-square foot facility highlighted by full-sized practice courts for both the Gator men's and women's teams, in addition to the coaches' offices and team locker rooms.

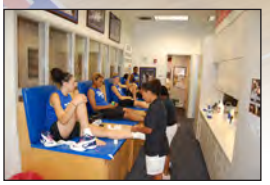
FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX

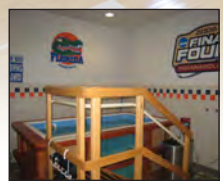


The Gator locker room is a home-away-from-home.

The Gator Women's Basketball Wall of Honor, which is along the East wall of the balcony that overlooks the Terry Frost Women's Practice Court, was created in the spring of 2009. Coach Butler selected as the initial honoree Paula Welch, the first full-time head coach in program history.

The Terry Frost Women's Practice Court features six baskets, Conner (Uniforce with NIKE Grind) wood floor and observation/video taping balcony. As part of the 2007 facelift, a Coach's Command Center with internal AV equipment is housed behind thick plex along the wall of the practice court for coaches and players to watch immediate on-court video.





The athletic training room, which houses its own whirlpool, is conveniently located steps away from the practice court.

The 1,900-square foot weight room features multiple strength and conditioning stations and ample room for agility and core drills, while providing office space for the strength coaches. Part of the 2007 facelift included dynamic super graphics displayed along the walls of the weight room.

Images of Gator All-Americans adorn the corner between the hallway's to the team locker room and the training room, practice court and weight room corridor.
